KIDS & FAMILIES

Bring your whole family out to enjoy stories and movement activities to support early literacy skills and help foster a love of books and reading in your child. Participation encouraged. Presented by Children's Services at CM Library.

Community leader and Horticultural Therapist and Growth Through Gardening owner Bobbie Mabe will present free classes on food preparation of easy, delicious, nutritious meals that take no time to make and can be tossed into one simple bag. Fast food that's GOOD for you. Each participant will receive a meal.

Ideal for those with little or no garden space, Bobbie Mabe shows you how to produce a variety of crops with the seeds, pots, materials and know-how to start growing and sharing your own abundant garden.

Artist and muralist Tiva Lasiter says 'go ahead and play with your food.' Express yourself and your creativity by making art and stamped cards from locally grown fruits and vegetables; look, touch, smell & taste. Your artistic creations will include your favorite food memories, fun stories and recipes that will be featured in a final exhibition called Food, Memories and Heritage.

For our 21st-century learners, Digi-Bridge will be offering 90-minute hands-on activities exploring science, technology, engineering, arts and math concepts while creating robots, rocket launchers and other DIY activities. Registration is required; contact wfishman@unc.edu or call 704-687-0881.

TEENS

Join the Charlotte Mecklenburg Library at MAX for a hands-on multimedia experience using the Satellite Studios. Learn how to create digital media and produce audio and video content, while gaining experience with new technologies and devices. Bring a flash drive to share your project or share online. Presented by Teen Services at CM Library.

ADULTS

City of Charlotte staff and your community police officers will present sessions on city service offerings and the Eastside Community Investment Plans. Do you have a question about sidewalks, recycling, neighborhood safety, bike lanes, business services? Come to our sessions on Transportation/Planning or 311/Safety.

Charlotte's entrepreneurial experts Queen City Forward will offer free weekly classes that can help you craft your creative ideas and learn how to launch them into reality. Spanish interpreters available

WHAT IS MAX?
MAX is UNC Charlotte's mobile classroom/stage for arts exploration, education and pop-ups to connect neighbors and build community.

WHAT IS ALDERSGATE?
Aldersgate is a nonprofit with a mission greater than our 250-acre campus. We are eager to celebrate the rich culture of our east side community together.
